

Children, Youth and Families Worker

Mission: To love, engage and disciple families, children and young people

This is a time of real potential for our Parish. With two new, large housing developments in our villages, we want to share our passion for spreading the gospel to children, youth and families. We are seeking someone with a passion for Jesus and a real desire to lead, energize and grow our children, youth and families work.

We value the children, youth and families in our churches, and already have dynamic youth groups ranging from little ones to late teens. We have close relationships with our local Church of England primary schools and involvement with our secondary schools.

Full Time: £23,000-£25,000 per annum, depending on experience.
